

TRACING LINES 11

Do you want to learn handwrite nicely and correctly? These exercises can help you. Draw over the shapes first, and then draw the same shapes until the end of the line. Draw the shapes in the direction of arrows. The direction of drawing is important for nice and fluent handwriting. Try to use correct tilt and height of shapes.

The page contains eight rows of handwriting practice, each with a top line, a middle line, and a bottom line. The first row shows a solid cursive 'l' with a starting arrow, followed by 15 dashed 'l's for tracing. The second row shows a solid 'l' with a starting arrow, followed by 15 dashed 'l's, and then 15 small circles on the middle line and 15 dots on the bottom line. The third row shows a solid 'l' with a starting arrow, followed by 15 dashed 'l's, and then 15 small circles on the middle line and 15 dots on the bottom line. The fourth row shows a solid cursive 'f' with a starting arrow, followed by 15 dashed 'f's for tracing.
