

TRACING LINES 4

Do you want to learn handwrite nicely and correctly? These exercises can help you. Draw over the shapes first, and then draw the same shapes until the end of the line. Draw the shapes in the direction of arrows. The direction of drawing is important for nice and fluent handwriting. Try to use correct tilt and height of shapes.

The worksheet contains 12 rows of handwriting practice, each with a solid line on the left and a dashed line on the right for tracing. Row 1: A large arch with an upward arrow, followed by 10 dashed arches. Row 2: A solid arch, followed by 10 dots. Row 3: A large oval with a downward arrow, followed by 10 dashed ovals. Row 4: A solid oval, followed by 10 dots. Row 5: A solid U-shape, followed by 10 dots. Row 6: A solid wave with an upward arrow, followed by 10 dashed waves. Row 7: A solid wave, followed by 10 dots. Row 8: A solid S-curve, followed by 10 dots. Row 9: A solid figure-eight with a downward arrow, followed by 10 dashed figure-eights. Row 10: A solid figure-eight, followed by 10 dots.
