

TRACING LINES 8

Do you want to learn handwrite nicely and correctly? These exercises can help you. Draw over the shapes first, and then draw the same shapes until the end of the line. Draw the shapes in the direction of arrows. The direction of drawing is important for nice and fluent handwriting. Try to use correct tilt and height of shapes.

The worksheet contains 12 rows of tracing exercises, each with a solid example shape and a dashed shape for tracing. Row 1: Teardrop shape with a downward arrow, followed by 11 dashed teardrop shapes. Row 2: Teardrop shape with a downward arrow, followed by 11 solid circles. Row 3: Teardrop shape with a downward arrow, followed by 11 solid circles. Row 4: Teardrop shape with a downward arrow, followed by 11 dashed teardrop shapes. Row 5: Teardrop shape with a downward arrow, followed by 11 solid circles. Row 6: Teardrop shape with a downward arrow, followed by 11 solid circles. Row 7: Teardrop shape with a downward arrow, followed by 11 dashed teardrop shapes. Row 8: Teardrop shape with a downward arrow, followed by 11 solid circles. Row 9: Teardrop shape with a downward arrow, followed by 11 solid circles. Row 10: Teardrop shape with a downward arrow, followed by 11 dashed teardrop shapes. Row 11: Teardrop shape with a downward arrow, followed by 11 solid circles. Row 12: Teardrop shape with a downward arrow, followed by 11 solid circles.